Zionsville announces hiring of Chief Financial Officer

The Town of Zionsville announces the hiring of Kellie Adams as the Chief Financial Officer. Adams will start on April 11.

Adams was previously the controller for the Indiana Department of Administration. In this role, she reduced all three state agencies' budgets by 15% without layoffs. She also has served in the capacity of CFO for Indiana Archives and Records Administration and Public Access Counselor. She previously worked for the state legislature as part of the Budget Committee.

"After an extensive search, we are thrilled to welcome Kellie to the team," said Mayor Emily Styron. "With over 15 years of finance experience, Kellie is a highly accomplished finance executive with leadership experience in similar organizations in the state."

Adams graduated from Indiana University with a Bachelor of Science in Public Affairs and a concentration in Management. She attended the IU Robert H McKinney School of Law. Adams currently resides in Zionsville with her husband and young daughter.
